MEDICINAL.

The human heart, that most wonderful of engines, is scarcely larger than a man's fist. Yet in each twenty-four hours the dual heart moves approximately six tons of blood, equivalent to about two barrels of blood per hour. And this continues without ceasing from the first breath of infancy to the last sigh of age. Is it any wonder that when the heart is strained or put upon so delicate and busy an organ, it should break down? Is it any wonder that in this age of overwork there should be an increasing number of deaths attributed to heart failure?

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition and purifies and enriches the blood. One of the ingredients entering into the "Discovery" is one of the best heart tonics known to medicine. Thus while through the action of "Golden Medical Discovery" the body is nourished into strength, the heart is also strengthened and an adequate blood supply is pumped to the stomach and kidneys thus improving the action of these organs.

Sick people, especially those suffering from chronic diseases, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free, and to obtain without charge, the opinion of a specialist on their ailments. All correspondence strictly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"I had been troubled with catarrh of the stomach and heart trouble," writes Mr. W. D. Merchant, of Tylersburg, Carbon Co., Penna. "Had doctors for some time without relief, then I began to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took seven bottles. Before I began to take it I weighed 150 pounds, and now I weigh 175. I am working steadily and feel like a new man. I send you many thanks."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the bowels and stimulate the sluggish liver. Can't you eat? Others can. Latest improvements in Cough. Our patent suction Never fails down.

Call and have a set with the above improvements. Old loose and ill-fitting plates corrected in fit, durability and comfort perfectly true to nature.

PROCEEDING AGAINST ALLEGED LYNCHERS.

The grand jury which is to investigate the lynching of Charles Craven by a Loudoun county mob on Thursday, July 31, met in the county courthouse in Leesburg yesterday morning and heard a number of witnesses who gave testimony before the coroner's inquest.

Twelve men were summoned, two from each of the six districts. Two of them, who are officials of the county, were excused. The following ten men were selected: S. S. Lutz, Henry Harrison, Alfred Stanton, E. W. Presgraves, R. R. Walker, R. W. Braden, John H. Bowers, J. W. H. Crimm, William Fletcher, and Volney Osborne.

Judge Tebb's charge to the jury was comprehensive and covered minutely every detail connected with the crime. He said he appreciated that the duty confronting them was an onerous one, which no man would seek, yet none could shirk. "You are to inquire into the death which only a few days since Charles Craven met at the hands of a mob," he continued. "Why is this killing of Craven so important? You ask. Was he such an important citizen, or can his loss be so hardly borne? No! In his death the State sustains no loss. Barnburner, highway robber, murderer. Most likely his crime-stained soul has passed to answer before his maker for deeds done in the flesh, and none, not even his old mother, bewails his fate. Was it simply that he was murdered? No; other murders are daily happening in this broad land, yet they do not shock us like this one. As citizens we view crimes only as they affect the Commonwealth." He said there were circumstances that distinguish the lynching from other crimes and caused the eyes of all mankind to be turned upon Loudoun county in sad astonishment. There was no excuse, he said, for the commission of the crime. "We live under laws and a government," he said, "the heritage of our forefathers, enjoying under these their laws, for which they fought and bled and died, the noble heritage of protection in life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Without reason or excuse—merely to glut their mad passion for lawless and useless vengeance, in defiance of the laws of God and man; in open daylight, with a reckless disregard for the rights, nay, the very lives of others; with the declared purpose, if necessary to the accomplishment of their fell design, to take the lives of our best citizens; careless of the honor and fair name of this, their native land, this lawless mob overpowered the officers of justice, broke into and injured our jail, intruded their hands in human blood and brought down shame and disgrace upon us. "And, gentlemen, this is not all, nor the worst of the sad story. Saddest of all is to consider the character of the men who did this deed. The mob was composed only, I am told, in a small degree of the base and degraded among us. It consisted largely of men from whom we had the right to expect better things; men of standing and education in the community; men whom we should expect to find upholding and maintaining, ready to fight for, even to die for, the laws and rights and government, so dear to their ancestors, and these men were the leaders in heedless violence, in rank lawlessness. If such things are to be upheld by the good people of this land, then God save old Loudoun—God save Virginia. Gentlemen, not in anger or indignation, but oppressed with sorrow, and with the full sense of the responsibility resting upon me, have I spoken. I have endeavored faithfully to discharge my sworn duty under the laws. Most sincerely do I trust that many of these men have already seen, or will yet see the error of their ways, and in the future will be true defenders of that government they have wronged, those laws they have violated. Gentlemen, I now submit this whole matter to you, with implicit confidence that you will perform your duty and as best you may, so act as to vindicate the honor of Loudoun and the majesty of the law, re-establish peace and safety among us, and that never again does deed so shameful darken the pages of our history."

Charles R. Lowenbach, the saloon-keeper, and one of the leaders against the local option movement, who was held by the coroner's jury, returned to Leesburg yesterday and placed himself in the custody of Sheriff H. Harrison Russell. He has been in Baltimore since the day after the lynching, but thought it advisable to return to answer to any indictment which the grand jury might find. Through his attorneys, Senator R. Walton Moore, of Fairfax, and Judge J. B. McCabe, of Loudoun, he waived a preliminary hearing before Justice Charles F. Harrison, and was held for the grand jury. Application will be made for bail before Judge Tebb's, of the county court. Nothing has been heard of Marvin Wilson, a nephew of William H. Wilson, whom Craven is supposed to have murdered, or George Williams and another man named Williams, for whom warrants were sworn out by the coroner.

It is believed that a thorough investigation will be made and many indictments found. The result of these deliberations will not be made known for several days, if it will, perhaps, take that length of time to complete the matters before them. Great interest is manifested, and the citizens await the jury's finding.

A Cure for Cholera Infantum.

"Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker, of Bookwalter, Ohio, "an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale by Richard Gibson, Druggist.

His Sight Threatened.

"While picknicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Ia. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is sure cure. Relieves pain at once. Beware of Counterfeits. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

CIGARS AND TOBACCOS.

We Have Manufactured

Captain Billy

Cigars since 1884 but at no time have we ever made a cigar to equal the "Captain Billy," which is made for men of taste, and equal to many of the cigars on the market. The Captain Billy is made of the finest imported and domestic tobacco grown, being specially hand made by experienced union workmen. The stock is old and well seasoned, being kept in our warehouse until well aged before it is manufactured into cigars. The Captain Billy is made in two shapes—Perfecto and No. 1—so you can take your choice. When the Captain Billy cigars are manufactured they are packed in Spanish cedar boxes and then put in an airtight room so they will gradually dry without losing their Havana aroma, before being offered to the trade. If you anticipate taking a trip to the seashore it would be well for you to order the Captain Billy to carry with you as you can find no cigar to equal them. "Captain Billy," a 10c. cigar for 5c.
